Yes. You can print your statements as you would any other document by choosing the 'Print' option under your browser's 'File' menu, or by clicking on the printer icon in the toolbar. You can save your statement by clicking on the PDF icon in the toolbar or under the 'File' menu. If you save your statement to your personal computer, you should make sure that you have enough security to stop anyone else from viewing the information. If you get an error message when you download your statement, just select 'Cancel' to clear the message. You can view and download your statement in My Barclays Documents, too - just select 'My documents and messages' from the drop-down menu under your name on the Online Banking homepage and select 'My Barclays documents'. Select the 'Download' button above the statement and save the file to your computer. Launch a PDF reader, such as Adobe Reader® and then open the file you saved. The app If you have the Barclays app, you can view your statements by opening 'More' on the home page and then 'Statements and Documents'. You must be 16 or over and have an eligible product or account with us to use the app. If you're aged 11 to 15 years, you can use our version for children. Terms and conditions apply. The app only works with Android 5.0 and above and iOS 11 and above. Your service provider may charge for internet access from your phone. Watch our video guide to view and download your statements in the Barclays app. Your browser doesn't support HTML5 video tag. Online banking To do so, tap 'Register' in the top-right-hand corner of pages on Barclays.co.uk. We have automatically uploaded electronic copies of your statements from July 2013. You can search your statement archive by selecting 'Online Statements' from the drop-down menu under your name on the Online Banking homepage, then select the relevant account. Your statements will also be in your Barclays Cloud IT storage account, which you can get to from the dropdown menu under your name as well. Just look for the 'My Barclays documents' link. If you registered for Online Statements before July 2013, you will be able to view statements from the date you did so. To choose Online Only Statements, log in to Online Banking and go to the dropdown menu under your name in the top right-hand corner of the page. Select 'Statement and letter preferences' under the 'My preferences' section. You'll be shown a list of accounts and be able to choose how you want to receive your statements. If you choose to receive statements online only, you'll no longer get paper versions. We have automatically uploaded electronic copies of your statements from July 2013, which you can access through Online Statements in Online Banking, or 'Statements and Documents' in the Barclays app. If you registered to get your statements online before July 2013, you'll be able to view them from the date you did so. You can request a printed copy of a statement that isn't in your Online Statements from a branch or by Telephone Banking (if you are registered) on 0345 734 5345*. If you have a Premier account, you can call Premier Telephone Banking on 0800 924 7365, if you're registered. You can also order an up-to-date (interim) statement in Online Banking by going to 'Service centre', 'View all online services' then 'Order', selecting 'Interim account statement' and clicking on the Order interim statement link. The app Electronic copies of your statements from July 2013 are automatically saved in your app. However, if you registered to get your statements online before July 2013, you'll be able to view them from the date you registered. To view them, log in to your app, choose 'More', 'Statements and documents', and 'Statements'. From the list, choose the relevant statement and tap 'Download' - you'll then be able to print it. Watch our video guide to viewing and downloading your statements in the Barclays app. Your browser doesn't support HTML5 video tag. Online banking From July 2013, electronic copies of your statements will have automatically been saved in Online Banking. However, if you registered to get your statements online before July 2013, you'll be able to view them from the date you registered. To view them, click on your name and choose 'Online statements' from the drop-down menu. Then, select the account you'd like to view, choose the relevant statement and 'Download' - you'll then be able to print it from your computer. Telephone Banking If you can't register for Online Banking or the app, you can order a copy of your statement by calling Telephone Banking (if you're registered).
