

Back to Program Home Updated for June 2025Based on official Maryland Driver's manualTo earn a learners permit in Maryland knowledge (permit) test. It consists of 25 multiple-choice questions divided into two parts. The first part covers laws and regulations, and you must answer at least 22 of 25 questions correctly to pass. The second part is about road signs, and you must answer all 10 questions correctly to pass. In Maryland, there are no online options for taking the knowledge test. If you fail the test, you must wait one business day (and pay the retake fee) before taking it again. Our Maryland MVA practice tests are designed to keep any retakes from being necessary. Maryland operates a graduated licensing program (GDL) that applies to drivers under 25 (the Rookie Driver program). Individuals 25 and older follow a slightly modified process, requiring fewer practice hours before a driving test. Even if youre between 18 and 24 and just starting to drive, you still need to go through the GDL stages: Learners Permit, Provisional License, and Full Drivers License, and Full Drivers License for 18 months without any violations or preventable crashes, you move to the full drivers license stage. Updated for June 2025, our free online Maryland Permit Practice Test can help you pass by providing questions and answers based on the Maryland MVA 2025 Driver Handbook. Our practice tests provide instant feedback on each practice question and mimic the official Maryland written test. When ready, go to the Maryland MVA with proof of identity and age (birth certificate or passport), proof of Maryland residency (utility bills suffice), proof of your Social Security number, and parental consent form if under 18. Youll submit the documents, pay the fee, and take the knowledge test.
